

NATIONAL MATHEMATICS CONTEST 2025

TERMS AND CONDITION

1. Entry Rules

RAJIV GANDHI SCIENCE CENTRE (RGSC) is the Organiser for the National Mathematics Contest (NMC) 2025 and reserves the right to refuse any entry which in their opinion does not comply with these Terms or which contravenes the spirit of the contest. The organizers have absolute discretion to disqualify any entry, or vary, amend, supplement, or waive the terms of the contest at any time and participants agree that no liability shall attach itself to these organisations as a result thereof and that the exercise of such discretion shall not result in any compensation being payable or paid to any participant. It is a condition of entry that all rules are accepted as final, and that the participant agrees to abide by these terms. The contest is subject to change.

2. Eligibility

Participation in the NMC 2025 is reserved for students of Grade 9 or equivalent attending school in Mauritius. Only individual entries can be entered. A maximum of four (4) entries will be accepted per school.

3. Entries & Registration

Entry into the contest is free. Registration to participate in NMC 2025 can only be made through the RGSC by an educator or school representative and requires the submission of the applicant's name, address and contact details, the applicant's organisation name, name of each participant, and agreement to the full Terms and Conditions. Incomplete registrations will not be accepted. Information about how to register is set out on the homepage of Rajiv Gandhi Science Centre. Registration is online and can be accessed at

<https://form.jotform.com/250852193398567>

The deadline for registration is 09 May 2025.

5. Contest Judging

The Organizers shall appoint the members of the panel that will judge the contest entries and the performance of the participants. All decisions made by the judging panel shall be final and binding.

7. Marketing & Publicity

Participants will be required to ensure that they have parental permission for inclusion in photography at the event and subsequent promotion and publicity of winning entries. The organizers reserve the right to use photographs on social media, websites and in the press. The organizers may publish the first name, surname initial, age and/or address of members of the winning team and their school's name. Winners' names, locations, photographs, and any comments made in relation to a prize may be used by the organizer without limitation for future promotional, marketing and publicity purposes, in all and any media worldwide without notice and without any fee being paid.

8. Confidentiality & Data Protection

In submitting this form to the RGSC, you are giving permission for the RGSC to contact you. The RGSC undertakes to keep your information secure and not to provide it to outside parties.

9. Complaints

The RGSC is willing to investigate any complaints to ensure that their high standards are maintained. However, their decision is final, and they shall not be obliged to enter any correspondence regarding the contest and/or the awarding of the prizes. If a participant wishes to complain they should contact the RAJIV GANDHI SCIENCE CENTRE.

10. Notice

The RGSC shall not be liable for any injury, loss or damage to persons or property arising directly or indirectly from the contest. All decisions and outcomes of the contest are made in good faith and shall be considered final and binding.
